MESSAGE FROM Administration

'Tis the season Bulldogs!
We are very grateful for your continuous support as the school year is quickly passing along. We would like to also give you suggestions for gifts you may give students to support their academic needs:

Story books, magazines, comic books, workbooks, Play-Doh/clay, crayons, coloring books & sketch pads are items students can entertain themselves with while strengthening their brain & hand muscles. This in turn helping strengthen reading & writing skills. We understand the time of giving & we hope our students receive items like these to help them reach their maximum academic potential.

We also wish that you spend quality time with dear families & friends during the holiday season.

Fondly,
Y. Rodriguez & Y. Fernandez
